13.4. The failure of either Party to enforce at any time any provision of the Agreement may not be construed to be a continuing waiver of those provisions.

13.5. The Agreement is governed by the laws of the state of New York, United States of America, without regard to conflicts of law principles. Application of the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act and United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, 1980, and any successor law to either, is specifically excluded. The Parties waive any right to a trial by jury for disputes and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal and State courts within New York State for resolution of disputes; however, Seller may seek an injunction or enforce a judgment against Buyer in any jurisdiction. Buyer will not bring a legal action more than two years after the cause of action arose unless a shorter period is provided by applicable law.

13.6. The Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties and any pre-printed terms are excluded. Any terms on facility entry documents or other similar documents signed by Seller after the Order date are not applicable. If there is any conflict in terms, the order of precedence is the License, any Addendum, the acceptance, the Agreement (excluding the Order), and then the Order.

13.7. The Agreement may not be varied except by a written change signed by authorized representatives of both Parties. Provisions of the Agreement that by their nature should continue in force beyond the completion or termination of the Order will remain in force. Buyer will not delegate, transfer, or assign, by operation of law or otherwise, the Agreement, or rights or obligations under it, without Seller's prior written consent and any attempt to do so is void. For purposes of this Section, assignment includes any change in control of the Buyer or the merger of Buyer with any other legal entity.
